STATE OF ARKANSAS,
In the Supreme Court.

Be it remembered, that at a supreme court of the State of Arkansas, begun and held at the court-house, in the city of Little Rock, on the 2d day, being the first Monday in January, A. D. 1860, were the following proceedings, before the Hon. Elbert H. English, chief justice, and the Hon. Freeman W. Compton, judge, on the 4th day of February, in said term, in the case of—

CHARLES C. MCDERMOTT, Appellant,
MARTIN R. P. MATHIS, as Sh'ff, &c., Appellee.
} No. 279.—Appeal from Chicot C't C't, in Chancery.

Be it remembered, that heretofore, to wit, on the 31st day of December, A. D. 1858, the said appellant filed in the office of the clerk of said supreme court the transcript of the record in this cause, which is in the following words, to wit:

Pleas before the Honorable John C. Murray, judge of the 2d judicial circuit of the State of Arkansas, at a court begun and holden at the court-house, in the town of Lake Village, in Chicot county, Arkansas, on the 1st Monday after the fourth Monday in September, A. D. 1858, on the 4th day of the term, and on the 7th day of October, A. D. 1858, among other proceedings, the following were had, to wit:

CHARLES C. MCDERMOT, Complainant,
MARTIN R. P. MATHIS, Defendant.

Be it remembered, that heretofore, to wit, on the 29th day of March, A. D. 1858, the complainant, by his solicitors, filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court his bill for an injunction in the above cause, which is in the words and figures following, to wit:

Bill.

THE STATE OF ARKANSAS,
In Chicot Ct. Ct.

To the Honorable Theodorick F. Sorrells, Judge of the Chicot Circuit Court, in Chancery sitting.

Humbly complaining, showeth unto your honor, your orator, Charles C. McDermot, of the county of Drew and State of Arkansas, that he is the owner of the following lands, lying and being in the county and State aforesaid, to wit:

The N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ sec. 7, and the N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 8, in township 14 south, of range three west; W. $\frac{1}{2}$ of N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ sec. 8, township 14 S., range 3 W.; S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ sec. 7, township 14 S., range 3 W.; south ½ of S. E. ¼ of the southwest quarter of section 6, township 14 S., of range 3 west; the N. W. ¼ section 8, township 14, range 3 west; south part of the west fract. half (south of bayou Bartholomew) of the northwest fractional quarter of section 7, township 14 south, of range 3 west.

And your orator showeth, that by an act or pretended act of the general assembly of this State, entitled "An act to provide for making and repairing levees in Chicot county," approved 7th January, 1857, and an act or pretended act entitled "An act supplementary to an act passed at the present session of the general assembly, entitled An act to provide for making and repairing levees in Chicot county, approved 7th January, 1857," it is enacted and declared that there shall be levied and collected, in the county of Chicot, an annual levee tax on all alluvial lands in said county that would be benefited by levees, and which are or shall be taxable for State and county purposes for each year, commencing with the year A. D. 1857, of not less than one-fourth of one per centum, nor more than one per centum, upon the assessed value of said land, provided that no land which shall be so taxed for levee purposes to raise said tax shall he valued at less than ten dollars per acre, and each of the levee inspectors provided for by said first mentioned act shall assess all the lands in his district which are or shall be taxable under this act, and shall make and certify, under oath, to the clerk of said county, his assessment list, and the clerk shall ascertain and state upon the tax book the amount of levee tax chargeable upon each tract of land, according to the valuation of said land assessed in the manner aforesaid, and in accordance with the order of the county court, fixing the rate of the levee tax, and the sheriff shall collect said tax and account for the money in accordance with law, and each levee inspector shall be the sole judge of what lands would be benefited by levee work, and shall embrace in his assessment list only such lands as he shall deem of that description; that the first section of said first act provided, that at each general election thereafter, there shall be elected a levee inspector for each levee district in said county, and that no person shall vote in the election of said levee inspector who does not reside on or cultivate alluvial lands in the county, subject to be assessed and taxed under the provisions of said act, but that the county court of said county shall, at the first term holden after the passage of said act, appoint or elect, for the county of Chicot, five levee inspectors, who shall be qualified according to the provisions of said act, and who should constitute the board of inspectors for said county, and who should hold their office until their successors should be duly elected and qualified; and the persons so appointed should have power to make such rules and regulations as they may from time to time deem necessary.

By the 4th section of said act it was made the duty of said board of levee inspectors to appoint a treasurer, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the board, to whom the sheriff, whenever called upon by him, should pay over all the moneys collected under said act.

By virtue of the 5th section, it was made the duty of the inspectors to lay off the county into levee districts, of suitable and convenient size for one inspector to perform the duties of, and that in all future elections there are to be elected one inspector for each of said districts, and every inspector is required to reside in the district for which he is elected, and be a freeholder, and that thereafter the board should consist of the whole number so elected.

By section 7 of said act it was declared to be the duty of said inspectors, at their meeting on the first Monday in May in each year, to order the levees at the most important points in each of said districts to be repaired or built.

By section 8 the levee inspector, together with two freeholders of his district, was to lay off the levees therein directed by the board to be built, and that by section 9 he was to let out the building or repairing of levees in his district.

Section 15 of said act declares that the assessments and levy of said tax should be made by the county court, an order of said county court, designating the amount per acre, and the item of payment of said tax, which order shall be published for four weeks in some newspaper in the State, and a copy thereof be put up at some public place in each township in the county, and it shall not be necessary in any such order of assessment and levy to designate the said lands, either by numbers or other description; but upon the making and publication of such order, that all lands in said county, subject to said tax, are assessed at the rate and payable at the time specified, the same shall be considered as duly and legally assessed; and said tax, duly levied thereon, and such order being duly recorded by the clerk of the circuit court, it shall be his duty to attach a copy of the same to each tax list of the State and county revenue, which he shall make out annually, and extend the said tax against all lands subject thereto, contained in such list, in a separate column, to be provided for this purpose; and said board of levee inspectors shall have power, and it is hereby made their duty, at their annual meetings in May, to adjust the assessment and levy of said tax by hearing and deciding all questions relating to the improper assessment and taxation of any lands, or the omission to assess and tax, and legally taxable under the provisions of this act, and make additions to, or deductions from, the taxes, charged in such list upon any lands or against any person whatsoever, and such correction and deduction may be made upon the affidavit of the person applying therefor, stating the ground upon which it is claimed, or any other information or evidence satisfactory to the board of inspectors, whose decision shall be final.

Section 16 makes it the duty of the sheriff to collect said levee tax, and in the case of a failure of the owner of the land so assessed to pay the tax due upon it, or within the time prescribed by the act, or which might be prescribed by the board of inspectors, it was made the duty of the sheriff or collector to expose the lands to sale on the first day of the next circuit court, and that if no person shall offer and bid the amount of taxes due on any lot, section, or other legal subdivision of land, the same should be struck off to, and purchased by, the treasurer of the board of inspectors, who shall receive a deed from the sheriff thereto as treasurer, and to his successors in office, for the use and benefit of said levee fund.

And your orator would further show, that in accordance with the provisions of said act, or pretended act, but not at the next term after the passage thereof as required by said act, but at a special adjourned term begun and holden on the 24th day of February, 1857, the said county court of Chicot county proceeded to elect and appoint Charles W. Campbell, Daniel H. Sessions, Joseph M. Craig, Nathan Ross and Payne, whom your orator prays may be made defendants to this bill (should it be deemed necessary,) such levee inspectors, and that said Campbell, Sessions, Craig, Ross and Payne afterwards organized and elected the said Charles W. Campbell as president of their board, and as such board proceeded to divide the county into levee districts as provided in said act, and to assess said levee tax. On the 3d Monday of April, A. D. 1857, (which was in fact the first regular term meeting of said court after the passage of said act,) the said board filed in said court a list of lands which they had assessed for such levee tax, to which was affixed a valuation of said lands. And thereupon it was ordered, by the said county court, that a tax of five-eighths of one per centum be levied and collected on the assessed value per acre of all the alluvial lands in said county, or that are or shall be benefited by levees, and which are or shall be taxable for State revenue, according to the value of said lands as fixed by the assessment of said board of levee inspectors, and the collector for the county was authorized and required to make collection of said levee tax on or before the first day of December, 1857, and by said assessment so made by said board, and returned to the county court, all improved lands on the Mississippi river, and contiguous thereto, were valued at $30 per acre, and all unimproved lands throughout the county at ten dollars per acre.

Further complaining, your orator showeth unto your honor, that the above described lands of your orator are included in said assessment; but your orator avers that they are wrongfully assessed, for if they are in any proper and legal sense alluvial lands, they are not benefited by levees within the meaning and intention of said act. Your orator submits that the benefit to lands contemplated by the legislature, and intended by the act, is an immediate and direct benefit by protection from overflow, by reason of the levees, and not an indirect or incidental benefit; that levees are constructed to protect lands from overflow, and that protection is the benefit that the legislature intended that they should confer to subject the lands to said tax. But your orator avers that the said lands are not, and have not been since the settlement of the country, and perhaps for centuries before, subject to overflow, and are not protected from high water or overflow by any levee, and need none for their protection. It may be true, and your orator does not deny, that since the construction of the levees on the Mississippi river, the accessibility from that river to them has been improved, but does not improve the fertility, nor make them dryer, or in any way more productive, is evident and clear.

It is true that by the 15th section of said act, it was made the duty of said board of levee inspectors, at their meeting in May, to adjust the assessment and levy of said tax, by hearing and deciding all questions relating to the improper assessment and taxation of any land, and that a correction of improper assessments was required to be made, upon the affidavit of the person applying therefor, stating the grounds upon which it is claimed, or any other information or evidence satisfactory to the board; but your orator submits, that as said act makes the decision of the board upon such application final, your orator could have nothing like a fair, full, and adequate remedy against such improper assessment, for inasmuch as said assessment was made by said board, or by one of them, at least, who was to determine the justice of the application against the assessment, the matter would, to some extent, at least, be prejudiced against him, and should the decision be adverse to the owner, no appeal therefrom, or to any court or tribunal, is allowed him, and he is compelled to yield and surrender his property by the judgment of a tribunal unknown to the Constitution, and which is, as respects its powers and proceedings, above it and the law of the land.

And your orator submits, that from that, as well as the additional consideration that said levee commissioners are to be elected by a privileged class of electors, that is to say, only by persons who reside on or cultivate alluvial lands in the county, subject to be assessed and taxed under the provisions of said act, and not by the constitutional electors of the State, and that it takes from the county court a portion of its jurisdiction in matters relating to county taxes, disbursements of money for county purposes, and the internal improvement and local concerns of the county, that said act, and the supplementary act thereto, are unconstitutional and void, and that said assessment and tax are illegal, unconstitutional and void, and your orator is not bound by the law of the land to pay the same.

Your orator further showeth unto your honor, that a portion of said lands in this your orator's bill is a portion of the swamp and overflowed lands donated to the State of Arkansas by the government of the United States, and by act of the general assembly of the State of Arkansas were exempt from taxation for the term of ten years after the entry or location of said lands, or until the said lands were reclaimed; which purchase was made before or previous to the passage of the act of the general assembly of the State of Arkansas, entitled "An act to repeal the 14th section of an act entitled 'An act to provide for the reclaiming of the swamp and overflowed lands donated to this State by the United States,' approved 6th January, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and for other purposes," approved 11th January, 1855, or purchased with swamp land scrip, issued before the passage of said last mentioned act, which last mentioned lands, your orator is advised, are not subject to taxation.

But now, so it is, may it please your honor, Martin R. P. Mathis, who is the sheriff and ex officio tax collector for said county, and whom your orator prays may be made a defendant to this bill, has advertised the said lands of your orator for sale, at the court-house door in Lake Village, in said county of Chicot, on the 29th day of March, A. D. 1858, for said levee tax, your orator having paid all other taxes therein for the year 1857, and is proceeding to sell the same, to satisfy and pay said illegal, unconstitutional, oppressive, and unjust levee tax, and, unless restrained by your honor, will on said day sell the same; and your orator has reason to believe, and does so believe, that in consequence of the great doubt existing as regards the constitutionality of said act before mentioned, and of the legality of such sale, his lands will be sold at a great sacrifice, and he will be greatly injured thereby, unless restrained by your honor, thereby putting him to great expense, and in all likelihood involving him in litigation and lawsuits concerning the same.

Inasmuch, therefore, as your orator is remediless by the rules of the common law, and can only have adequate relief in the premises in a court of equity, may it please your honor to grant unto your orator not only the State's most gracious writ of injunction, issuing out of and under the seal of this honorable court, to be directed to the said Martin R. P. Mathis, as such sheriff and ex officio tax collector, to restrain him and his deputies from selling or offering to sell the said described lands of your orator, or any part thereof, to pay or satisfy said levee tax, but also the State's most gracious writ of subpœna, commanding the said Martin R. P. Mathis to be and appear before your honor, &c., full, true, direct, and perfect answer make to all and singular the premises, and further to stand to, perform and abide such further order, direction, and decree therein, as to your honor shall seem meet. And your orator shall ever pray, &c.

I, Charles C. McDermott, do solemnly swear, that the allegations so far as stated on my own knowledge, is true, and that those stated upon the knowledge of others he believes to be true, so help me God.

B. F. STEPHENSON, Clerk.

And afterwards, to wit, at a supreme court of said State, begun and held on the first Monday in January, A. D. 1859, and on the 6th day were the following proceedings, to wit:

Agreement of Counsel.

At this day come said appellant and appellee, by their solicitors, and their agreement of record filed in the case of James H. Wilson vs. Martin R. P. Mathis is also filed in this case. And thereupon, on motion of said appellant, it is ordered that his assignment of errors be filed, and the same is filed.

Which said agreement is as follows:

Whereas Edmund McGehee, James H. Wilson, John J. Jackson & Co., Charles McDermott, Charles C. McDermott, James S. Montgomery, and William E. Bowling, filed their several bills of complaint against Martin R. P. Mathis, sheriff of Chicot county, restraining the collection of levee taxes on certain lands owned by them in said county, and said Mathis appeared and answered the bill filed by said McGehee, and an agreement of counsel was drawn up and signed and filed in said cause stating the facts relative to the matters and things arising in said suit, and by agreement of counsel, entered of record in the Chicot circuit court, said answer of Mathis and the agreement as to the facts, filed in the case of McGehee vs. Mathis, were to be taken and stand as the answer of Mathis and the facts in the other cases; and said causes were heard on such answer and agreement of facts, and the bills severally dismissed and injunctions dissolved; and said complainants appealed to this court, and said causes are now on the docket of this court, numbered from 263, 264, 278, 279, 280, 281, and 284, inclusive; but the transcripts in the said causes, except in the one of McGehee vs. Mathis, No. 264, do not contain the answer of said Mathis and said agreement of facts: Now we, as counsel for said parties, do hereby agree and consent that the said answer and agreed state of facts in No. 264 may be taken and considered by the court as portions of the transcripts in the other of said causes, viz: 263, 278, 279, 280, 281, and 284, and hereby waive the necessity of having the same formally incorporated in said transcripts.

GARLAND & RANDOLPH,

And WM. M. HARRISON and GARLAND & RANDOLPH,
For MCDERMOTTS, BOWLING, and MONTGOMERY.
S. H. HEMPSTEAD,
Solicitor for Martin R. P. Mathis.

And said assignment of errors is as follows:

Ass't of Errors.

Comes the said appellant by attorney, and says, that there is error in the record and proceedings had in this cause, in this, that is to say:

1st. The court erred in refusing to make the injunction perpetual and in dissolving the same.

2d. In dismissing the appellant's bill and refusing to grant the relief therein prayed for.

3d. The decree is in favor of the appellee when it should be in favor of the appellant; and this, he, the said appellant, is ready to verify, wherefore he prays judgment, &c.

HARRISON & HOOKER.

And afterwards, to wit, on the 12th day of November, A. D. 1859, at a term of said court begun on the first Monday in October, 1859, to which term this cause was continued by operation of law, were the following proceedings:

Joinder.

At this day comes said appellee, by his solicitor, and on motion it is ordered that his joinder in errors be filed; and thereupon the same is filed.

And at the same time comes said appellant, by his solicitor, and this cause is submitted on briefs, and by the court taken under advisement.

Which said joinder in errors is as follows:

And the said appellee, by his solicitor, comes into this honorable court and says that there is no error either in the record and proceedings aforesaid, or in rendering the decree aforesaid; and he prays that the court here may proceed to examine as well the record and proceedings aforesaid as the matters above assigned for error; and that the decree aforesaid, in form aforesaid given, may in all things be affirmed, with damages and costs.

Decree.

And afterwards, to wit, on the said 4th day of February, A. D. 1860, were the following proceedings:

This cause came on to be heard upon the transcript of the record of the circuit court of Chicot county in chancery, and was argued in this court by the solicitors of the parties, on consideration whereof it is the opinion of the court that there is no error in the proceedings and decree of said circuit court in chancery in this cause:

It is therefore ordered and decreed that the decree of said circuit court in chancery in this cause be, and the same is hereby, in all things affirmed, with costs.

It is further ordered and decreed that said appellee recover of said appellant all his costs in this court in this cause expended, and have execution thereof.

And afterwards, to wit, on the 10th day of February, A. D. 1860, came said appellant, by his solicitor, and presented a writ of error issued from the circuit court of the United States for the eastern district of Arkansas, duly allowed by the chief justice of this court, and filed therewith an appeal bond, in the following words:

Bond in Error.

Know all men by these presents that we, Augustus H. Garland as principal, and Gordon N. Peay as security, are held and firmly bound unto the said Martin R. P. Mathis in the sum of one hundred dollars, to be paid to the said Mathis, and for the payment whereof well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, and our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Signed and sealed by us respectively, and dated this 7th day of February, A. D. 1860. The condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas the above named McDermott has prosecuted a writ of error to the Supreme Court of the United States to reverse the judgment rendered by the supreme court of the State of Arkansas, in the suit there pending on appeal in chancery from the decree of the circuit court of the county of Chicot, in that State, in which suit the said McDermott was appellant: Now, therefore, if the above bounden McDermott shall prosecute his writ of error to effect, and answer all costs if he shall fail to make good his plea, then this obligation shall become void; else remain in full force and virtue.

GORDON N. PEAY. [SEAL.]

STATE OF ARKANSAS.

Having fixed the amount of the foregoing bond at the sum of one hundred dollars, and the sureties therein being personally well known to me, and being by me considered sufficient, I do hereby approve the said bond as sufficient, the said writ of error being lodged in the office of the clerk of the supreme court of the State of Arkansas, on this 10th day of February, A. D. 1860.
